California Rules of Court, rule 8.1115(a), prohibits courts and parties from citing or relying on opinions not certified for publication or ordered published, except as specified by rule 8.1115(b). This opinion has not been certified for publication or ordered published for purposes of rule 8.1115.

IN THE COURT OF APPEAL OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA
SECOND APPELLATE DISTRICT
DIVISION EIGHT

THE PEOPLE,

Plaintiff and Respondent,

v.

NATASHA TANIA KARAITIANA,

Defendant and Appellant.

B211825

(Los Angeles County
Super. Ct. No. LA058651)

ORDER MODIFYING OPINION
and
DENYING PETITION FOR REHEARING
[change in judgment]

IT IS ORDERED that the opinion filed in the above-captioned matter on February 11, 2010, be modified as follows:

In footnote 2, substitute the words “no contest plea” for the words “guilty plea” in the first sentence.

In the first paragraph of part 1 of the Discussion section, in the sentence that begins with the words, “The defense did not request ...,” delete the following language: “, namely, to ‘[c]onsider with caution any statement made by the defendant tending to show her guilt unless the statement was written or otherwise recorded,’” and substitute a period in its place, so that the sentence now reads: “The defense did not request, and the trial court failed to add, the cautionary instruction that is required when there is evidence of an incriminating out-of-court oral statement by the defendant.” The citations following the sentence remain the same.

In the Disposition, delete the second sentence and substitute the following in its place:

“The trial court is directed to amend the abstract of judgment accordingly and to forward a copy to the Department of Corrections. As modified, the judgment is affirmed.”

This constitutes a change in the judgment.

The petition for rehearing is denied.
